

RADIANCE OF THE SEAS November 13 - 18, 2010

Booking Agent: The Swinger Cruise (877) 348-6570

NOTE: You MUST Print, Sign & turn in the Rules & Conduct Policy BEFORE boarding.

Please read the following pages, print them out and sign them. It is MANDATORY to have a signed copy of the Rules & Conduct Policy with you when you check in at the port. If you do not print out this document, sign it and bring it with you, you will be given a blank form to fill out at the Port and it will just slow down your check in process.

Once turned in, you will be allowed to progress to the RCCL check in desk. No one will be allowed to check in with RCCL and get their set sail card until they fill out this form and turn it in.

We are also including a voluntary photo release form. We are going to have a professional photographer on board to take photos that we can use on our websites, put in our future programs and marketing materials and put into our online galleries so that other people can see the Couples Cruise experience.

If you elect to sign our photo release, we will give you a yellow wristband that says Couples Cruise Photo Permit on it. The only people we will photograph will be people wearing this yellow wristband. The wristband is removable so you can decide when you want or don't want to be photographed by simply removing the wristband. Our photographer will make sure to angle the photos so that no one (without a wristband) is in the background when he is taking pictures.

We will be taking a few overall shots of the pool deck and nightly parties, but we will always make sure that no one is identifiable in these pictures. We'll either use a slow shutter speed which will blur the people dancing, but give people an idea of the size and energy of our cruise, while respecting people's personal privacy. In any photos that do show people's faces in them, we will either delete them, blur the faces or crop them later so that no one can be identified.

Our 1st priority is to protect your privacy and ensure people that do not want to be included in photographs are 100% assured that they will not end up on any websites. Our 2nd priority is to show an accurate description of our product so that potential customers can make an informed decision on whether or not to book our cruises.

Note: No one has to submit to having their photo taken, in fact we assume you do not want your photo taken, unless you specifically fill out our photo release form and you are currently wearing our (very stylish and sought after) yellow wristband.

Thank you for your co-operation,

Your friendly cruise assistant
