Hello Lynn,

We have submitted all of your information to Carnival and should be receiving your booking numbers shortly. Carnival has advised us that there is going to be a delay as they are working with a new system and it is taking longer than expected. As soon as Carnival has returned your booking numbers and documents to us, we will send them out to you.

Also, please be aware that during this time, no one will be able to book standard shore excursions. This delay will not effect availability as standard shore excursions will only be available when all booking numbers have been sent out.

Thank you for your patience in this matter,

The Staff of YOLO Cruises
