Day 2: Cusco City Tour

Kusa Treks vans will pick the group up at 9AM from the hotel lobby. The tour starts with a quick drive to the Plaza de Armas, which is located right in the heart of the historic city! After being dropped off, you will take a 2-minute walk to the Catholic Cathedral, where you will enjoy a guided tour.

After visiting the cathedral, you will walk down the Avenida El Sol to the very center of the Inca Empire: Coricancha (Q'oricancha), known as the Temple of the Sun. At this incredible site you will witness a stark contrast between the Inca and Spanish methods of construction. This temple was the spiritual center of the Incas and the point from which their entire empire spread.

After touring Coricancha, you will take a 20–25-minute van ride to the outskirts of Cusco, where you will use your Tourist Ticket to visit 4 Inca archaeological sites. The first site you will visit is Sacsayhuaman, which is covered in, 200-ton monoliths. This incredible site will challenge your imagination as you ponder how it was possible for the Incas to build such a
